What You Need to Know About the Laws on Protests and Protesters in California

If you are going to protest or demonstrate in California, or you are simply interested in the laws for protesters, you need to know about various areas of law. In addition to California-specific law, there are federal and constitutional laws to know about. Be sure to see our Guide to Protester Rights in the U.S.

Here we present our legal guides that protesters should review.

1. Free Speech

Protesting obviously involves speech and expression. While we have significant freedoms to speak and express ourselves, there are limits. See our Guide to Free Speech Laws in California.

2. Government Actions

See what the government can and can't do to restrict protests, including use of the military, at our Guide to Government Actions.

3. Police Actions
